'Richly Ecumenical' is an apt description of my spiritual life. Baptized a Lutheran in a Norwegian Lutheran church on the North Dakota plains as an infant, at age six I became both a Presbyterian and a PK. My first introduction to the Episcopal church was on visits home from college; my dad had retired from the Presbyterian ministry and found he missed life in the church. A golden opportunity presented itself when Christ Church in Glenrock was in need of a part time clergy. Not only was it providential for my dad, unbeknownst to me, it proved to be pivotal in my future. My visits to Christ Church were a warm and perfect introduction to the Episcopal faith. After marrying my husband, Michael, a former Roman Catholic, we searched for a church together. The Episcopal church was the bridge we were seeking to meld and honor our protestant and catholic backgrounds. That beginning was 39 years ago and my spiritual growth continues to be nourished & deepened by the Episcopal faith. Through membership in the St. Peter's family and the Episcopal Church of Wyoming God continues to feed me daily and stretch me into new areas of growth.

For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.
