

The Rev. Stephanie Aaron Ludwig

St. Paul's, Evanston
Foundation Board Member

Stephanie Aaron Ludwig is the Deacon at St. Paul's and also serves at Trinity Lutheran Church in Evanston. She was ordained in 2016 shortly after graduating from the Wyoming Iona School. Stephanie works as an RN at the local county public health department, mostly with babies and new parents. Stephanie's ministries involve hosting an annual Vacation Bible School for the community, serving as parish nurse and connecting resources in the community with those in need and those who want to give. She lives in Evanston with her husband Ryce, 10 month old son Ryson and two pups. Besides her family and ministry, she enjoys caring for her plants and listening to true crime podcasts.
