SPIRIT OF WYOMING

Article Submission Descriptions

Opening Reflection - This is the first article in the magazine. It should express your thoughts and analysis of the assigned theme and scripture.

Personal Journey - This section is about your unique experience or personal growth during an adventure, usually involving self-discovery, contemplation, and learning.

Education Feature - This section aims to help readers comprehend a concept by starting with fundamentals and then gradually moving to more complex ideas.

Youth Highlight - This section is written by youth in the Diocese aged between 12-18, sharing their perspective on a personal experience that aligns with the assigned theme.

Foundation Focus - This section is about your ministry or community outreach that received funding assistance from the Foundation, and how this grant impacted your church and community.

Art Spotlight - If there is an artist in your church whose work deserves recognition, please let Genie Osburn, Communication Manager, know so that we can interview the artist and showcase their artwork.

Global Emphasis - This section focuses on what we can learn from another culture or country across the globe.

Church Outreach - This section is related to the theme and describes how your church is making a difference in our community or congregation through mission, outreach, or community engagement.

Closing Meditation - This is the final piece of writing in the magazine. It presents a spiritually nourishing thought or lesson for readers to reflect on and carry with them throughout their day.

Please note all articles will be edited to correct any spelling, grammar, and punctuation, as well as adjustments for comprehension and accuracy.
