

The Rev. Lin Davenport

Rector, Holy Trinity, Gillette
Standing Committee: Clergy

Dear Diocesan Convention Members,

My name is Lin Davenport and I am currently serving as Rector at Holy Trinity in Gillette. I have been in Gillette since March 2018, coming from Holy Trinity in Thermopolis where I was ordained on August 31, 2013.

I was baptized, confirmed and ordained in the same church that my Mom was baptized and confirmed, where she and my father were married and where my father's burial service was held.

I raised my children in Page, Arizona where I was a member of St. David's Episcopal Church which became part of the Diocese of Utah while I was a member there. I have experienced being part of an extremely small but faithful congregation as well as experiencing the vibrant, energetic and growing congregational life. I was Senior Warden during a time when we struggled to pay our monthly bills in a timely manner, having faith that God would help us find a way.

After being widowed, I retired from my job at Coconino County Adult Probation and moved with my youngest daughter back to my hometown of Thermopolis to spend time with my Mom, sister, brother and many nieces and nephews.

I am asking for your support as I seek a position on The Standing Committee in the Episcopal Church in Wyoming. I believe that at this stage of my ministry I have seen most of what can happen in small as well as vibrant churches. I love our church and our faith and would like the opportunity to work with others to ensure that we will continue to fulfill our Baptismal Covenant as we move forward into this new frontier.

Respectfully submitted,

Lin Davenport
